PADDY DE POLE (1) makes the long trip up from Somersset and was successful on his only visit to Sedgefield when winning over this trip twelve months ago. Top trainer appears to have found the perfect opportunity for him to get another win and will be hard to beat. FAIRLAWN SKIPPER (2) has won two of his last three starts with the most recent success coming over a similar trip at Newton Abbot last week. Quickly turned out and this shrewd trainer has to be respected when they send horses this far north. PARIKARMA (3) returned to winning ways at Stratford a week ago but has a tough ask with this sharp rise in the weights.

TRALEE GIRL (6) disappointed when a short price favourite at Fakenham in the spring after hinting at plenty of promise on her first three starts over hurdles. First run of the new season and she sets the clear form standard. YOU BE LUCKY JEAN (7) has been successful in her first two starts including a win over this trip in a jumpers flat event at the end of August. Open to any amount of improvement now hurdling. BLUE TOPAZ (1) had a wind operation before winning a jumpers flat race here in October but has struggled in two starts over hurdles. Not ruled out from a good yard. MIA SUNSHINE (3) is worth a market check on racecourse debut.

JETEYE (1) is an out and out stayer and returned to winning ways at Cartmel in July. Not disgraced over course and distance here a fortnight ago when runner up after being well supported. Expecting to another bold show despite top weight. AILL DUBH (3) won nicely at Cartmel in July but wasn't at his best when returning last time however is worth another chance back up to this distance. UNCLE AL (2) unseated the rider here last time but wasn't without support and providing he gets a clear round he will be hard to stop. BAHTIYAR (5) remains a maiden in 39 career starts but has hinted at having enough ability to win races. Has a chance in this contest.

MR MCWHINNY (4) has really turned a corner this summer with two wins in his last three starts including a good success at Newton Abbot on Monday after being strongly supported. Hard to oppose on these terms. ACHILLE DES ROCS (1) ended a frustrating run of failing to complete his races with a good win at Cartmel at the end of August. Not taken lightly if there is market support. MAGGIES BOY (2) has a first time visor fitted and drops in trip in search of a second career win. Could be better returning to this venue. CLEAN GETAWAY (5) disappointed since winning here last spring but is now weighted to go very close and is respected.

AIMERIC (1) has the talent and ability to to win over hurdles but has been taking his time in putting his best foot forward. Can be considered for this race after finishing runner up here two weeks ago. Tops the list of chances in the race. WILLIAM YEATS (3) was off the mark over hurdles here last time at this trip winning in good style having been well supported. Hard to fault that form. ROADSHOW (2) won well at this track twelve months ago but disappointed in two starts this summer. Needs a revival but back to this venue that may occur. TRACKER ISSUE (4) produced a career best when runner up over course and distance recently. One to consider.

LITTLETOWN LAD (4) was met with strong support and was off the mark under rules over course and distance here a fortnight ago. Should prove hard to beat once again. KARTHALA (3) has notable gear changes with the fitting of a combination of a tongue strap and visor. Last start was well held on the flat at Catterick but remain open to further improvement off this weight over hurdles. CHARACTER TESTING (1) continues to climb in the weights without winning but not disgraced when runner up here recently. Holds strong claims once more. TWILIGHT SAFARI (5) hasn't been seen over hurdles since April but is worth a market check.

FEMME FATALE (3) finds the perfect opportunity for going back to back and clearly looks to be a better horse on the all-weather having produced two fine performances at Lingfield Park. Met with strong support there last month and should prove very hard to beat under these conditions. VIRTUE DILIGENCE (2) remains a maiden after six starts and now goes up to the maximum trip for the first time. Needs the new distance to unlock further improvement. That is highly possible.

LOVELY JUBLY (1) returned from an absence scoring over course and distance beginning of July. That was his first win on the all-weather and open to further improvement makes top of the shortlist. KNIGHTMARE (4) has been busy this season but remains without a win in twelve starts on this surface. Drops back in trip after disappointing at Chepstow and worth giving another chance.

UNIONVILLE (2) finally returned to winning ways gaining a success here in a 1400m contest two weeks ago. Not harshly treated by the assessor and there is no reason to suggest he won't go close once more. DECALOGUE (1) adopts first time cheekpieces after placing at Salisbury a fortnight ago. Holds strong claims while declared at Bath on Sunday.

NATIONAL HONOUR (1) was well supported both starts. Got off the mark after a promising debut delivering his second outing at Thirsk last month making first attempt at this trip. Open to plenty of improvement and will be hard to beat despite the penalty. MAINSHOCK (5) showed a modicum of promise at Chepstow two weeks ago when making a quiet start to his career. Entitled to have learned plenty and will be a different proposition here.

GUADALEVIN (4) wears a hood for this her sixth star. Been highly tried in a couple of nice races through the summer. Disappointed dropping to this trip at Carlisle last month but should be better suited by this contest. BLING (1) ran with a degree of promise on debut attempting a 1200m maiden at Newbury last month. Entitled to improve plenty and will be a different proposition here.

ENCORE (1) only raced once as a three year old. Better last time out on stable debut at Windsor when runner up. Expecting further progress in form here and will be hard to beat. FORBIDDEN COLOURS (4) continues without a win after five attempts. His top trainer now reaches for a set of blinkers to bring about improvement. Not taken lightly.

HIBERNANTE (1) maintained fine form on turf this summer with a handful of placed efforts. Remains unexposed on the all-weather and should hold strong claims off top weight. SAX AVOIDANCE (5) won nicely making handicap debut at Salisbury Friday and ran okay providing his first start on the all-weather at Lingfield the outing prior to that effort. Not dismissed under a penalty.

KODICALL (4) makes his all-weather debut having won a 1200m maiden at Chepstow two weeks ago. Open to any amount of improvement now into a handicap and could prove hard to beat. HAPPIER (1) is well exposed. Will appreciate the step back up to 1200m here. Fair strike rate on the all-weather and is given every chance.
